

EAEDC ADVOCACY GUIDE

About MLRI

The Massachusetts Law Reform Institute is a statewide legal advocacy and support center. Our mission is to represent low-income people, elders, and disabled people in their struggle for basic human needs, to defend against policies and actions that harm and marginalize people living in poverty, and to advocate for systemic reforms that achieve social and economic justice. Our activities include advice, litigation, policy analysis, research, technical assistance and public information.

Acknowledgments

MLRI thanks advocates for poor people in Massachusetts who help EAEDC applicants and recipients obtain the benefits for which they are eligible and who work to make EAEDC a better program for poor families and individuals.

Special thanks go to those who worked on earlier editions of this Guide: Dina Brownstein, Ray Cebula, Annette Duke, Susan Edelstein, Ron Eskin, Rochelle Hahn, Gale Halpern, Deborah Harris, Steve Lamont, Eleanor Martin, and Gary Richards. Special thanks to Gale Halpern for her patient, tireless, and professional production of this Guide.

This Guide was written by Patricia Baker, Senior Policy Analyst, of the Massachusetts Law Reform Institute.

March 2000