TAFDC ADVOCACY GUIDE

About MLRI

Massachusetts Law Reform Institute is a statewide legal advocacy and support center. Our mission is to represent low-income people, disabled people and elders in their struggle for basic human needs; to defend against policies and actions that harm and marginalize people living in poverty; and to advocate for systemic reforms that achieve social and economic justice. Our activities include advice, litigation, policy analysis, research, technical assistance and public information.

Acknowledgments

MLRI dedicates this Guide to the low-income children and their families for whom it was written. We thank the advocates for children and families in Massachusetts who help cash assistance applicants and recipients obtain the benefits for which they are eligible and who work to preserve and protect basic benefits for people in poverty.

We especially appreciate the support for our work and for this Guide from the New Prospect Foundation, the Lawrence Foundation, and the Boston Bar Foundation.

Special thanks go to Annette Duke, Gale Halpern, Millie Peters, and Sandra Quiles. Their careful analysis and suggestions have made this Guide more accurate and more useful. The Guide also reflects work by Dick Bauer, Janis Broderick, Rochelle Hahn, Emily Herzig, Leslie Lawrence, Tish Lee, Kelly Love, Anne Mackin, Melanie Malherbe, Donna McCormick, Kristina Petronko, Patti Prunhuber, Michael Raabe, Deborah Roher, Steve Savner and Shari Zimble who contributed to this or earlier editions of the Guide.

This Guide was written by Deborah Harris, Ruth Bourquin, and Pat Baker, Benefits Unit staff at Massachusetts Law Reform Institute.
